After months on the road, many migrants say they've left their nightmare journey behind. "I am so happy to be here, I was very scared," said migrant Ruben. He crossed the border from Mexico a week before Christmas. Ruben was part of a group that crossed the border at an unofficial port of entry from Mexicali. "We all came in [un]official, we thought if you come like that, you'll get some more papers, be faster to get here," he said. But it didn't help his group. "We were told we are not going anywhere. They said we have all the papers, we are going nowhere. They made a big mess," Ruben said.
